Disembodied Poetics teaches us that ideas are strange attractors, that people get pulled into their orbit,

There is a original strain of cybacculture that we the ones that create want to keep alive. This is more of a space of poetics and meaningful play.

Living log in Creative Participation of the Whole.

Omega; A North Concept for TEC/DAOs

The Internet can be seen as a garden, then we are something like an ecologist of the mind. We plant seeds in hyperspace, we work within the framework of the soil, the seasons, the climate, and the temperature, to produce trees of knowledge, lineage of thoughts.

But now the shamans are dancing whole galaxies and eco-systems into the elegant dance of eternity. Sync to the heartbeat of the universe.

Ritual becomes the protocols
Memetic Rhythm of the tribes
The Map becomes the Territory

Whole schools of thoughts will emerge, like salamanders vibing with each others heartbeats
in the ponds of unimaginable eco-flow alchemy

{Co-creativity of commons, over time machines}

We who make space
so that the wind can dance

Jack Kerouac School of Disembodied Poetics

- Gregory Bateson lecture on consciousness and psychopathology.

Bateson examines psychological and social interactions with the sacred.

O: Ecology/Mandala of the mind and the sacred in this ecology.
